

This is the lowest form of politics. I am ashamed that the FCC has not taken a stand and equally ashamed that the Bush Campaign who has received money from Sinclair will not stand up and say this is wrong. Then again I expect nothing less from a campaign that is running scared and has no legitimate platform to speak of. I will do my best to urge all of my friends to cast a vote against any politician that stands by and watches this atrocity take place without denouncing it.
